ML

8/14/67

Dear Joe,

Thanks for thoughtful letter, check.

Subtitle: space is problem.

You'll see more in the New Orleans book. Garrison is going farthur, I suspect, with O's training, for I've heard him say he got the Russian instruction in Atsugi, Japan. I think he got his accent before he got to USSR and still wonder at Polish-accented Russian.

I think you'll find a prima facie case that O was an agent in Oswald in New Orleans, which Parallax is publishing for me.

Thanks for the thoughtfulness of the envelope. I'm working on entirely idfferent materials now, all from the official evidence, and of these I have no extra copies.

The Parallax edition will be less expensive, but without the 300plus page appendix of official documents I'd planned. It should reach a larger audience than I can, although their normal distributor will not touch this subject. If your bookstores do not have it in a month, get after them.

Parallax is 231 East 51, NYC.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg